

About CPD

The Volunteering Victoria CPD Program for Professional Leaders of Volunteers is designed to improve your knowledge and maintain a high standard of professional practice.

The program supports your continuing professional development by formally recognising the work you are doing to raise the standards of volunteer leadership in your organisation and across our state.

Endorsed by Volunteering Australia, this program is exclusive to members, voluntary and only $50 (ex GST) to join.

“

The CPD program was motivating, providing a welcome structure, sense of collegiality and recognition for those who dedicate time for ongoing learning.

This program seems a good fit for a profession that needs to continuously evolve to stay relevant in an ever-changing world.

Professional Leaders of Volunteers' CPD PROGRAM

Continuing Professional Development

How It Works

Participants are expected to accumulate a minimum of 16 points before the end of the calendar year.

These points can be attained through any combination of:

- ✓ Professional development, events and services offered by Volunteering Victoria
- ✓ Professional development at your organisation
- ✓ Reading relevant industry articles or other material (e.g. volunteering sector newsletters)
- ✓ Mentoring colleagues or members in volunteering management
- ✓ Writing a reflective piece on your volunteering leadership over the CPD year

Program Benefits

The CPD (Continuing Professional Development) Program for Professional Leaders of Volunteers is a formal avenue to improve your knowledge and skills.

By gaining your CPD accreditation, you earn the right to use 'PLV' after your name. This post-nominal will help raise your profile, and demonstrates your commitment to your career and to the volunteer leadership profession.

Receive a formal certificate awarding you the right to use 'PLV' after your name.

Be inspired to gain more knowledge and upskill.

Promote your point of difference to current and future employers.

Be recognised for the learning you're already doing or planning to undertake.
